

BECOME A FRIEND OF THE ARTS!

The Friends of the Arts (The Taylor Cultural Arts Foundation) is a 501(c)(3) non-profit organization and the fundraising arm of the Taylor Cultural Arts Commission. For a yearly, tax-deductible donation of just $10 for seniors and students, $15 for individuals or $25 for families, you can become a Friend of the Arts by joining the Taylor Cultural Arts Foundation and help promote cultural arts activities including performances, productions, educational programs and other events in our community. The Friends of the Arts is open to both residents and non-residents of Taylor. (For inquiries about corporate membership or higher levels of giving, please e-mail us at info@taylorarts.org.)

Your annual membership dues give you:

- a membership card
- discounts to TCAC-sponsored events, programs and classes
- the opportunity to attend monthly Friends of the Arts meetings
- the opportunity to serve on various committees for events and programs event
- a periodic e-newsletter
- Early information about TCAC events and programs through e-mail and on Facebook (for those members with Facebook accounts.)

Your annual membership dues allow for:

- Sustained funding for the TCAC annual scholarship program
- Production of social & educational cultural events in our community
- Contributions to the TCAC Building Fund, which in the future will allow the Commission/Foundation to have a "permanent" home for meetings, programs, events and classes.
- Helping to support other cultural arts groups and artists in our community
- Us to be an active part of the Downriver and Metro-Detroit cultural arts communities at large

To join, just photocopy (or cut out) and complete the form below. Make checks payable to the Taylor Cultural Arts Commission. You can stop in or mail your membership donation to:
